MARY'S DAY

It's 7 o'clock in the morning. Mary wakes up. She opens the window and looks outside. Two little birds fly happily in front of her. 'Good morning' they sing to her. 'Good morning' says Mary and rushes to the bathroom. She washes her face, combs her hair and gets dressed.

'Good morning!', her mum says from the kitchen. 'Breakfast is ready'. Mary goes down the stairs. 'Good morning, mum', 'Good morning, dad' Mary says. Mary is hungry. She drinks milk and eats bread with marmalade.

'Time for school' her mum says. Mary picks up her schoolbag and runs to the door. 'Goodbye' she says. 'Goodbye, Mary' her parents tell her and give her a kiss.

Now Mary is at school. 'Good morning, Mary' her teacher greets her. 'Good morning' Mary greets her teacher. Mary likes school. She has such a great time there.

The sun is high in the sky now. It's 2 o'clock. Time to go home! 'Goodbye, children' Mr Smith says. 'Goodbye, teacher' the children reply and leave school.

They walk back home. Mary's mum is waiting for her at the front door. 'Hello, sweet heart'.

'Hello, mum', Mary answers.

Then Mary has lunch and does her homework. She plays with her dolls and watches her favourite cartoons on TV.

It's 8 o'clock. Mary's tired. She eats some soup for dinner and then brushes her teeth. She puts on her pyjamas. It's bedtime! 'Good night, mum' 'Good night, dad' Mary says. 'Good night, Mary' mum and dad answer.

Mary looks out of the window. It's dark outside. Mary looks at the sky. The stars are twinkling. 'Good night, stars' says Mary. 'Sweet dreams, Mary' the stars reply.

Mary goes to bed. She's happy. Tomorrow's a new day!
